

“If you be my honey sucker” ... Copyright April 22, 1937 by J. Burk Williams.
[Seattle, Washington, Thompson printing co. 1939].

“IF YOU BE MY HONEY SUCKER”

I'm Looking for a Queen, a girl I've never seen Some one to be my Honey sucker vine I've got a theme
I am sure you will agree Just say you will be mine and I'll be your King of the Honey bees

If you be my Honey sucker, I'll be your Honey sucker bee. I am just a natural Lover Wont you take a chance with me? I never scurry, I never hurry: Just hum a little Sound like a Drum Bum, Bum, Di Da Hump Di Da Di the Bum.

Wont you let me be your King? You can be my Queen, just to sing while I do the Buzzing and hum a little sound. I am sure your Honey sucker is Sweet and I know it can't be beat. If you be my Honey sucker I'll do the loving and just hum, hum and Bumble around.

Copyright April 22, 1937 by J. Burk Williams

Thompson Printing Co.